Introduction 1

Part I  The Relational-Matrix Model of Reality 11

Chapter 1  The Development of the Relational-Matrix Model 15
  Section 1  The Implicit Structure of Space-Time 15
  Section 2  Structure as Relationship 19
    2.1  Relative existence 20
    2.2  Necessary terminology 23
  Section 3  Before the Beginning (of the Universe) There Was…
    Absolute Existence 27
      3.1  The evolution of absolute existence into relative existence 28
  Conceptual checkpoint I–1 32

Section 4  The Structural and Dynamic Aspects of the Relational Matrix 32
  4.1  The structural aspect 32
  4.2  The dynamic aspect 35
  4.3  The relationship between reality-cell structure and dynamic
      4.31  The rate-of-penetration constant 39
      4.32  The inverse relationship between reality-cell structure
            and dynamic 40
  Conceptual checkpoint I–2 42

Section 5  Defining the Structure of the Relational Matrix 43
  5.1  The uniformity and consistency of structure 48
  Conceptual checkpoint I–3 51

Section 6  Defining the Content of the Relational Matrix 52
  6.1  The duality of reality-cell content 52
  6.2  Uniformity and distortion of the relational matrix 54
  6.3  Degrees of reality-cell distortion 57
  Conceptual checkpoint I–4 60

Summary, conceptual checkpoints I–1 through I–4 60

Section 7  The Propagation of a Pattern of Distortion Content
  Through the Relational Matrix 61
  7.1  Distortion propagation—the basics 62
  7.2  Patterns of distortion propagation 63
    7.21  The pattern of propagation in which distortion content
         decreases 66
    7.22  The pattern of propagation in which distortion content
         increases 67
    7.23  The pattern of propagation in which distortion content
         remains constant 68
7.3 The linear-radial distortion complex

Conceptual checkpoint I-5

Chapter 2 The Dynamic Structure of Space: Relating the Relational-Matrix Model to Space-Time and Physical Reality

Section 1 Introduction

Section 2 The “Big Bang” and the Relational Matrix

Section 3 Space-Time and the Relational Matrix

Section 4 Electromagnetic Radiation and the Relational Matrix

4.1 Wavelength, frequency, the speed of light, and the relational matrix

4.2 The quantum nature of electromagnetic radiation

4.3 Energy and the relational matrix

4.31 Electromagnetic radiation, Planck’s constant, and the relational matrix

4.4 Energy as distortion field

Conceptual checkpoint I-6

Section 5 The Complementarity of Electromagnetic Radiation and Gravitation

5.1 Matter as associations of electromagnetic radiation

5.2 The EMR-gravitation complex

5.3 Relating the EMR-gravitation complex to the relational-matrix model

Conceptual checkpoint I-7

Section 6 Primary-Distortion-Process Interaction (the Dynamic Structure of Matter)

6.1 The pattern of primary-distortion-process interaction that forms matter

6.2 The gravitational distortion as the basis of primary-distortion-process interaction

6.3 Repetitive primary-distortion-process interactions (interactive-process stability and pattern integrity)

Conceptual checkpoint I-8

Section 7 The Anatomy of Compound Processes

7.1 Compound-process periods

7.2 Compound processes of the second order and beyond

7.3 Compound-process propagation

7.4 Compound processes and the spatial distribution of the gravitational distortion

7.5 Gravitation’s attractive nature

7.6 Gravitational acceleration

7.7 Gravitation’s functional (but not actual) curvature of space

Conceptual checkpoint I-9

Section 8 Time and the Relational Matrix

8.1 Time is a measurement, not what’s being measured

8.2 Time as a clockwork mechanism

8.3 Temporal relativity and the interactive material structure

Conceptual checkpoint I-10
Part II The Integration of Experience, Awareness, and Consciousness into the Unified Model of Reality

Introduction to Part II

Chapter 1 Experiential Mechanics I

Section 1 Physics and the Evolution of Our Understanding of the Relationship Between the Experiencer and the Experience

1.1 Classical Reality
1.2 Relativistic reality
1.3 Quantum reality

Section 2 The Introduction of the Unexperienced/Experiential-Reality Duality

Section 3 The Nature of Unexperienced Reality—Two Possibilities

3.1 Possibility one: Assuming the existence of defined realities in unexperienced reality
3.2 Possibility two: Not assuming the existence of defined realities in unexperienced reality
3.3 Comparing and contrasting possibilities one and two

Conceptual checkpoint II–1

Section 4 The Experiential Process

4.1 The relational nature of the experiential process
4.2 Wave/particle duality and the mechanics of experience
4.21 The experiential process
4.22 How the experiential relationship creates complementary wave and particle experiences
4.23 Why wave/particle duality reveals itself in the quantum realm
4.24 Why the complementary wave and particle realities aren’t simultaneously experienceable
4.3 The uncertainty principle and the mechanics of experience

Conceptual checkpoint II–2
